

North Carolina Libraries Report – Ralph Scott Editor

The Editorial Board has produced two electronic issues for 2005 (Spring Summer v.63 #1-2 and Fall/Winter v.63 #3-4). The print 2005 volume is currently undergoing pricing. If the price is in budget we will print similar to the 2004 issue. If not we will have two options: add additional funding or reduce size of print journal.

The Editorial Board is currently jurying and reviewing the first of the 2006 issues which will be posted to the web May/June 2006. The second 2006 should be out in the fall. Then we will move on to 2007 web issues. We will need funds for 2006 print issue in next year's NCLA budget.

The journal continues to receive good review and makes a positive contribution to libraries and librarianship.

The Editor appreciates the hard work of the Editorial Board and thanks NCLA for its support.
