Re: First planning meeting

The 2007 Conference Planning Committee will hold its first meeting on Friday, June 9, beginning at 10:00 a.m. in the Hurley Room at the Rowan Public Library Headquarters in Salisbury. I expect the meeting to be over by 2:00 p.m.

You can find directions to the library on our website at www.rowanpubliclibrary.org/amain/library_info.html

Please notify me only if you will not be able to attend this meeting.

Thank you for agreeing to serve on the Conference Planning Committee. I am confident that our committee, with the help of many NCLA members who have volunteered to assist with the conference, will produce a truly great conference for 2007.
