

College and University Section October 2008

The College and University Section is hard at work on the Library Instruction 2.0 Conference: Brainstorming, Planning, Teaching, Assessing. We've partnered with Community & Junior College Libraries section to host the conference on November 17 and 18. The conference consists of speakers, panels, presentations, workshops and lots of lively conversation about library instruction. The keynote speaker is Debra Gilchrist from Pierce College in Ft. Steilacoom / Puyallup, Washington. Debra is the Dean of Libraries and Media Services at Pierce College and the winner of the ACRL/IS Miriam Dudley Instruction Librarian Award. This award recognizes a librarian who has made a significant contribution to the advancement of instruction in a college or research library environment.

Also speaking will be Dr. Dennis Kubasko, Secondary Program Coordinator and Associate Professor for Secondary Science Education from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington.

Registration for the conference begins on October 3 and ends on October 31. The conference is limited to 140 registrants.
