About ALA

The American Library Association (ALA) works for students by advocating for increased library funding and ongoing development of the profession. Through our accreditation program, ALA ensures that the training you receive will prepare you for the career you have chosen.

We will help you with resources to find your first job and to remain competitive. ALA student members have access to the best network of career and professional development resources for library workers.

You need more than just class work to be fully prepared for your career. Joining ALA Divisions and Round Tables is an excellent way to build experience in your specialty, meeting and working with long-time professionals. Student members can take advantage of ALA resources like our resume review services, job placement events, and medical, dental, and life insurance.

To learn more about ALA and our Divisions or Round Tables, visit www.ala.org or call 1-800-545-2433, ext 5.

About NCLA

Student members of the North Carolina Library Association (NCLA) have a unique opportunity to broaden their experience outside the classroom and connect with the issues that affect our profession. Your membership is access to the networking opportunities that will benefit your work life and connect you with your future.

Join NCLA and learn about librarianship and information management in a “real world” context. Student members are called upon to not only learn but to lead. You have many opportunities through sections, roundtables and committees to build your resume while serving the needs of the profession. Your work life is accelerated through your membership in NCLA.

Visit www.nclaonline.org today to learn more and to join both ALA and NCLA for only $28/year.

NCLA Sections and Round Tables

Your joint student membership entitles you to membership in one section or roundtable. Choose from:
