

Minutes from NCLA Literacy Roundtable Meeting

Thursday, October 9, 2003

Archdale Public Library, Archdale, NC

Members Present: Gale Greenlee, Betty Meehan-Black, Trish Bean, Mark Pumphrey, Ralph Kaplan and Guest Naomi Galbreath

Gale called meeting to order and thanked everyone for coming. She introduced Emily Castleberry and Pam Hines from UNCTV. They passed out folders with UNCTV information about programming. www.unctv.org has links to many literacy sites for children and adults. Mark and Ralph won the door prizes.

The minutes from the September 25 meeting were approved

Old Business

We reviewed the NCLA luncheon evaluations and talked about the conference in general.

We worked on grant report and Trish will email next rough draft to everyone before she submits to NCLA.

Mark reported that Dale Lipshultz has asked him to be on an advisory board. He'll let us know when he knows more.

Mark filled us in on what goes on at NCLA Board Meetings-there is one coming up later in month

New Business

Goals and priorities for the coming year-ideas include family literacy, preschool, early childhood, learning disabilities, special populations
