North Carolina Library Association Executive board Meeting Minutes
Friday, April 20, 2011 – Hickory Metro Convention Center – Hickory, NC

93 NC Public Library Trustee Association – VACANT

94 Carol Walters reported that she will be working with one of the trustees from the 95 Sandhill Regional Library System, Theron Bell, to organize a program for public
96 library trustees at the NCLA Conference. The program will showcase two or 97 three authors. It is hoped that this event will help reactivate NCPLTA, a point
98 reiterated by State Librarian, Mary Boone, who offered the services of the State
99 Library to assist with this program. Light refreshments will be served following 100 the program.

101

116 Programs and events being planned for the NCLA Conference include a program
117 on professional image, “Do You Have the Right Image for Success?”, a program
118 on “Your Leadership Brand – What image do you present to others?” and a 119 session focusing on various e-reader devices, baseline descriptions of use and how 120 specific e-readers interact with library databases, especially NC-LIVE resources.
121 A luncheon program featuring author Geoffrey Baym from UNC-G is also being 122 planned.

123

124 RASS will co-sponsor with the NC Chapter of the Special Library Association
125 and REMCo a workshop for library professionals entitled CareerWise 2011.

126

127 The section is making an effort to recruit and engage new members, targeting 128 mailings to members who have just renewed and members whose membership is 129 coming due or lapsed.

130

131 Round Table for Ethnic Minority Concerns – Evelyn Blount

132 Full report online

133 Programs being planned or under consideration for the NCLA Conference include 134 a pre-conference program on etiquette for lunch and dinner and a program on 135 African-American genealogy. It was emphasized that programs need to raise 136 funds for the Round Table.

137
