

NCLA Public Library Section Fabulous Fridays

Registration Form 2016

Please print clearly.

Name: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Address: _____ City _____ ST _____ Zip _____

Library/Organization: _____

Dates and locations: (Select)

- September 30—High Point Public Library, 901 N. Main St., High Point
(Registration Deadline 9/16/2016)
- October 7—Pack Memorial Library, 67 Haywood St., Asheville
(Registration Deadline 9/23/2016)
- October 14—Cumberland County Library & Public Information Center (Headquarters),
300 Maiden Ln., Fayetteville
(Registration Deadline 9/30/2016)

Registration fee, which includes lunch. (Check rate that applies)

- $30 Non-Members of NCLA
- $20 NCLA members, non-PLS members
- $10 NCLA PLS members
- Presenters no charge

Make checks payable to NCLA.

Send payment to: NCLA, Attn: Kim Parrott, 1841 Capital Blvd., Raleigh, NC 27604

Dietary Needs (None, Vegetarian, Vegan, Nut-Allergy, Gluten Free, Other)

Keynote speakers:

Michael Crumpton, Assistant Dean for Administrative Services, University Libraries, UNCG (9/30)

Cal Shepard, State Librarian (10/7 & 10/14)

Agenda:(approximate)

9:30 AM	Registration and coffee
9:55 AM	Welcome
10-11 AM	First concurrent sessions
11:15 AM-Noon	Keynote Speaker
Noon-12:45 PM	Lunch (provided as part of registration)
1:00-2:00 PM	Second concurrent sessions
2:15-3:15 PM	Third/final concurrent sessions
3:15-3:30 PM	Wrap-Up/Evaluation

Breakout sessions (choose only 3 sessions):

Reading is for Everyone - 9/30, 10/7, 10/14

This presentation will introduce the audience to the NC Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped.

Readers' Advisory 101 - 9/30, 10/7, 10/14

Description: What is readers' advisory? Why is it important? And who can do it? Find out the answers to all of these questions and more in this RA crash course.

Get Creative with Makerspaces - 9/30, 10/7, 10/14

At this session, you will learn about the concept and history of makerspaces, how they fit into libraries, and how you can create your own no matter what your library size.

How did you do that? Organizing a How-To Festival for your library - 9/30, 10/7, 10/14

Learn how to plan and run a successful How-To event, whether it's a one-day extravaganza that takes over your whole facility, or a week-long series of short sessions (30 to 45 minutes) spread across your library system, on a wide variety of topics - everything from repairing drywall to making a darn good pie crust.

Library Security - 9/30, 10/7, 10/14

ZOOM Pass - Alamance County Public Libraries' ZOOM Pass Program - 9/30, 10/7, 10/14

The Zoom Pass Program offers Alamance County Public Library patrons free passes to area attractions. The program was designed to encourage our patrons to go out in to the world, experience life, and learn. This session will cover an overview of the program, recruiting new attractions, marketing, adding the passes to our library database, and the implementation of our Tixkeeper reservation software.

Digitizing Collections to Connect with Your Community - 9/30, 10/7, 10/14

Finding Your Social Media Voice - 9/30, 10/7, 10/14

Want to create an engaging social media presence for your library but don't know where to start? Have social media accounts but not connecting with your online community as effectively as you would like? Members from the Online Community Development team at Union County Public Library will discuss how their library built a sustainable approach to social media without having a dedicated online marketing department.

Creating with Canva - 9/30

Using Canva to create engaging publicity etc., for your library

Reaching Teens and New Adults in the Library - 9/30, 10/14

International Game Day and Gaming in the Library

Are You Telling Me How to Raise My Child? - 9/30, 10/14

Handling Disruptive Parents and Children

We Need Diverse Books - 10/7

Presented by the Youth Services Section of NCLA

Pokemon Go @ the Library - 10/14

Learn about Pokemon Go and how your library can capitalize on this latest craze!