The Southeastern Library Association's 2010 Biennial Conference comes to Little Rock on September 25-28, 2010. It is a joint celebration with the Arkansas Library Association at the Little Rock Convention Center and the Peabody Hotel with National speakers Camila Alire, Sally Gardner Reed, and Leslie Burger; programs and exhibits; mentoring, continuing education, awards; auction baskets; get-together, tours; and much more!

For a regional perspective on the issues all of us in libraries deal with daily...join the Southeastern Library Association (SELS). SELA complements our state library associations by extending our professional community throughout the 12 Southeastern States for $25-$65 in annual dues.
