

The Women's Issues in Librarianship Roundtable met January 29 at the Graham Public Library. The roundtable is seriously concerned with the way the finances were handled at the January board meeting, and they suggest that the board examines why this deficit occurred so that the same mistakes will not be made again. In particular, the roundtable suggests the board look at conference management and less expensive options for the Leadership Institute. It is WILR's opinion that the entire association can be weakened by taking money from the sections and roundtables, the organizations that drive the association and the biennial conferences.

WILR is discussing off year workshops and hoping to have Paula Singer as the facilitator. The workshop will happen sometime this fall, and will take place in Winston-Salem.

Respectfully submitted,

Jennie Hunt, chair WILR
