About ALA

The American Library Association (ALA) works for students by advocating for increased library funding and ongoing development of the profession. Through our accreditation program, ALA ensures that the training you receive will prepare you for your chosen career.

We will help you with resources to find your first job and to remain competitive. ALA student members have access to the best network of career and professional development resources for library workers.

You need more than just classwork to be fully prepared for your career. Joining ALA Divisions and Round Tables is an excellent way to build experience in your specialty, meeting and working with longtime professionals. Student members can take advantage of ALA resources like our résumé review services, job placement events, and medical, dental, and life insurance.

To learn more about ALA and our Divisions or Round Tables, visit www.ala.org or call 1-800-545-2433, ext 5.

About NCLA

Student members of the North Carolina Library Association have a unique opportunity to broaden their experience outside of the classroom and connect with the issues that affect our profession. Our membership is thousands of library professionals dedicated to the future of North Carolina's libraries. Your membership is access to the networking opportunities that will benefit your work life and connect you with your future.

Join NCLA and learn about librarianship and information and management in real world context. Find a mentor and be exposed to a wide variety of libraries and library issues. Student members are called upon not only to learn but to lead. You have hundreds of opportunities through committees and work groups to build your résumé while serving the needs of the profession. Your work life is accelerated through your membership in NCLA.

Visit www.nclaonline.org today to learn more and to join both ALA and NCLA for only $35/year.

NCLA Interest Groups

Your joint student membership entitles you to participate in various NCLA interest groups. Please contact NCLA directly after your application has been confirmed to add interest groups to your membership. Current offerings include six round tables as well as the following sections:

Business Librarianship in NC; Youth Services; College & University; Community & Jr. College Libraries; Government Resources; Library Administration & Management; Public Library; Reference & Adult Services; Resources & Technical Services;
