

Web Site Committee
Reports to NCLA Board
April 10, 2008

1) In January 2008, an e-mail was sent out to the NCLA Executive Board mail list to determine which Sections were updating their own web pages, and whether the Section had their own website design or if their design was the same as the rest of the NCLA website. The following information was gathered. The sections that don't have a web editor listed did not respond to the e-mail.:

Section Website	Design	Web Editor
Business Librarianship	Unique	Steve Cramer
College & University	NCLA	Lisa Williams
Community and Junior Colleges	NCLA	Christy Allen
Ethnic Minority Concerns	Unique	Jamane Yeager
Government Resources	Unique
Library Administration & Management	NCLA
Literacy	NCLA
NC Association of School Librarians	Will switch to NCLA design	Christy Allen
NC Library Paraprofessional Association	Unique
NC Public Library Trustees Association	NCLA
New Members	Unique	Drew McNaughton
Public Library Section	Unique	Martha Sink
Reference and Adult Services	Unique	Joline R. Ezzell
Resources & Technical Services	Unique	Stephen Dew
Scholarships & Loans	NCLA	Lisa Williams
Special Collections	Unique	Matt Reynolds
Technology & Trends	Unique	Christy Allen
Women's Issues in Libraries	Unique	Jenny Barrett Boreno
Youth Services	Unique

2) Information on the website was updated on a regular basis.

3) The following updates will be considering in the coming months:

- Continued clean-up of folder/files and standardization of folder/file naming conventions

- Updating website to reflect recently renamed “Women’s Issues in Libraries” Section
- Update the home page of NCLA to reflect current news, events, and other information important to the North Carolina library community
- Begin planning NCLA’s website redesign to go live in October 2009

Respectfully submitted,

Christy Allen
