

Board Report for REMCo (Roundtable for Ethnic Minority Concerns) January 18, 2013

Current Board:

Chair-Philip Cherry, Director of Onslow County Libraries, Jacksonville

Vice-Chair/Chair Elect-Avis Jones, Southgate Community Library, Wake County Public Libraries

Past Chair-Evelyn Blount, Guilford College, Greensboro

Secretary/Treasurer-Shamella Cromartie, Fayetteville State University, Fayetteville

Co-Director-Alan R. Bailey, East Carolina University, Greenville

Co-Director-Forrest Foster, Winston-Salem State University, Winston-Salem

Webmaster-Iyanna Sims, North Carolina A&T State University, Greensboro

- Our Chair, Philip Cherry proposed we meet via teleconference to discuss:
 - A. Current REMCo budget
 - B. Whether or not to provide scholarship support to one of the Leadership Institute attendees?
 - C. Possible coordination of a African-American Genealogy workshop with the Public Library's Genealogy & Local History Subsection and the State Library
 - D. Possible programming in the NCLA 2013 Conference year.
 - E. Recruitment of new members

That meeting wasn't held; therefore the group is in transition at this time.

- The Vice-Chair, Avis Jones, represented REMCo at the NCLA Day event, September 13, 2012, at Durham's South County Regional Library with an information table.
- The Vice-Chair also attended the JCLC conference, September 19-23, 2012, in Kansas City, MO
- The Vice-Chair, Avis Jones, will attend the NCLA Executive Board meeting representing REMCo, Friday, October 19, 2012, in High Point, NC.
- Future meetings to be announced.

Respectfully submitted,
Avis Jones
